Barbra Streisand holiday tribute shows features meticulous recreations by Carla DelVillaggio.
December 14 - 22 at Laurie Beechman Theatre

Buy tickets HERE .

"Looking and sounding uncannily like the real deal, the 40-something performer delivers a show that's probably the next best thing to seeing Streisand herself play Brooklyn's Barclays Center in October — and certainly a lot cheaper... It's an all-too-convincing illusion." -- New York Post

Award-winning Barbra Streisand tribute artist Carla DelVillaggio returns to New York City with the premiere of her new holiday show
BARBRA: A CHRISTMAS SPECIAL
, an evening of festive songs recorded by Streisand. Performances are Friday, December 14; Thursday, December 20 and Saturday, December 22 at the Laurie Beechman Theatre inside the West Bank Café (407 West 42 Street at 9th Avenue -- accessible from all subways/buses to Times Square/Port Authority). Tickets are $22. All performances are at 7:30pm and doors open one hour before showtime. A full dinner menu and bar are available, with a $15 per person food/beverage minimum. Tickets may be purchased at www.SpinCycleNYC.com or by calling 212-352-3101.

BARBRA: A CHRISTMAS SPECIAL is a joyful holiday-themed evening of jaw-dropping recreations of the legendary Streisand voice by tribute artist Carla DelVillaggio. The show features songs including Christmas Memories, Jingle Bells, What Are You Doing New Year's Eve?, It Must Have Been the Mistletoe, Grown-Up Christmas List, Winter Wonderland and even a Hanukkah song or two as well as a couple of classic Barbra tunes.